

PROJECT SEARCH WORK TRAINING PROGRAMME

LNWH – NORTHWICK PARK HOSPITAL

The Project SEARCH Work Training Programme is a collaborative venture between Harrow College and key local and national partners. The programme will provide on-site practical work training at Northwick Park Hospital for young adults with special educational needs.

The course is designed to develop transferable skills, knowledge and attitudes in readiness for paid employment. Students will develop Employability, Customer Service, Confidence, Maths, English and ICT skills whilst working alongside employees in a real employment setting. Classroom based learning at the workplace will enable students to try out three different work roles, supported by the tutor and the job coach.

Benefits of the programme:

- Participate in a variety of placements at a high status local employer
- Acquire competitive, transferable and marketable job skills
- Gain increased independence, confidence, self-esteem and friendship groups
- Receive work-based individual instruction, coaching, support and feedback from the job coach, teacher and host business managers
- A chance to improve English and Maths as well as gain a Work Skills qualification
- Project SEARCH is a national programme with the majority of participants gaining paid work

Entry requirements

- Aged 18-24 on the 1st of September 2017 and have an Education, Health and Care Plan in place.
- Commit to a 5 day a week programme and be an independent traveller or be undertaking travel training.
